AIPEF warns against to

PNS ■ LUCKNOW
The All India Power Engineers Federation (AIPEF) has sought the intervention of Prime Minister Narendra Modi for preventing the tabling of the Indian Electricity (Amendment) Bill, 2022 in Parliament on August 8. Union Power Minister RK Singh has announced to table the bill in Parliament on August 8. The power engineers have demanded that the bill be referred to the standing committee of Parliament for a detailed discussion with all the stakeholders. The Coordination Committee of Engineers (NCEE) AIPEF have already issued a notice on the bill, and warned that the government will not contribute national flags to the public for the Independence Day celebration. The government's 'Har Ghar Ki Chhat' (hoist national flag at the roof) campaign. He said free distribution of
